CODE OF ETHICS FOR DIRECTORS, KMP AND OTHER MEMBERS OF SENIOR MANAGEMENT

❖ FOREWORD

The values and principles which have governed the manner in which the Pramara Promotions Limited (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”) and the group of companies associated with the Company (collectively along the Company referred to as the “Group”) and its employees have conducted themselves have never been articulated. It was therefore considered worthwhile to prepare a clearly defined document which could serve as a guide to employees including whole-time directors and other members of senior management on the values, ethics and business principles expected of him or her.

Regulation 17(5)(a) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 requires the Board of Directors of a listed company to lay down a code of conduct for all Board members and senior management of the company which has to be posted on the website of the company. All Board members and senior management personnel are required to affirm compliance with the code on an annual basis. The Annual Report of the company is required to contain a declaration to this effect duly signed by the MD.

❖ NATIONAL INTEREST

The Company shall be committed in all its actions to benefit the economic development of the countries in which it operates and shall not engage in any activity that would adversely affect such objective. It shall not undertake any project or activity to the detriment of the Nation's interests or those that will have any adverse impact on the social and cultural life patterns of its citizens. The Company shall conduct its business affairs in accordance with the economic development and foreign policies, objectives and priorities of the Nation's government and shall strive to make a positive contribution to the achievement of such goals at the international, national and regional level as appropriate.

❖ FINANCIAL REPORTING AND RECORDS

The Company shall prepare and maintain its accounts fairly and accurately in accordance with the accounting and financial reporting standards which represent the generally accepted guidelines, principles, standards, laws and regulations of the country in which the Company conducts its business affairs. Internal accounting and audit procedures shall fairly and accurately reflect all of the Company's business transactions and disposition of assets. All required information shall be accessible to company auditors and other authorized parties and government agencies. There shall be no willful omissions of any company transactions from the books and records, no advance income recognition and no hidden bank account and funds. Any willful material misrepresentation of and/or misinformation on the financial accounts and reports shall be regarded as a violation of the Code apart from inviting appropriate civil or criminal action under the relevant laws.

❖ COMPETITION

The Company shall fully strive for the establishment and support of a competitive open market economy in India and abroad and shall co-operate in the efforts to promote the progressive and judicious liberalisation of trade and investment by a country. Specifically, the Company shall not engage in activities which generate or support the formation of monopolies, dominant market positions, cartels and similar unfair trade practices. The Company shall market its products and services on its own merits and shall not make unfair and misleading statements about competitors' products and services. Any collection of competitive information shall be made only in the normal course of business and shall be obtained only through legally permitted sources and means.

❖ EQUAL-OPPORTUNITIES EMPLOYEES

The Company shall provide equal opportunities to all its employees and all qualified applicants for employment without regard to their race, caste, religion, colour, ancestry, material status, sex, age, nationality, disability and veteran status. Employees of the Company shall be treated with dignity and in accordance with the Company's policy to maintain a work environment free of sexual harassment, whether physical, verbal or psychological. Employee policies and practices shall be administered in a manner that would ensure that in all matters equal opportunity is provided to those eligible and the decisions are merit-based.

❖ GIFTS AND DONATIONS

The Company and its employees shall neither receive nor offer or make, directly or indirectly, any illegal payments, remuneration, gifts, donations or comparable benefits which are intended to or perceived to obtain business or uncompetitive favors for the conduct of its business. However, the Company and its employees may accept and offer nominal gifts which are customarily given and are of commemorative nature for special events.

❖ GOVERNMENT AGENCIES

The Company and its employees shall not offer or give any company funds or property as donation to any government agencies or their representatives, directly or through intermediaries, in order to obtain any favorable performance of official duties.

❖ POLITICAL NON-ALIGNMENT

The Company shall be committed to and support a functioning democratic constitution and system with a transparent and fair electoral system in India. The Company shall not contribute any amount or amounts, directly or indirectly, to any specific political party or for any political purpose to any person except in accordance with and in the manner and within the limits prescribed under the provisions of applicable laws.

❖ HEALTH, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT

The Company shall strive to provide a safe and healthy working environment and comply, in the conduct of its business affairs, with all regulations regarding the preservation of the environment of the territory it operates in. The Company shall be committed to prevention of the wasteful use of natural resources and minimization of any hazardous impact of the development, production, use and disposal of any of its products and services on the ecological environment.

❖ CORPORATE CITIZENSHIP

The Company shall be committed to be good corporate citizen not only in compliance with all relevant laws and regulations but also by actively assisting in the improvement of the quality of life of the people in the communities in which it operates, with the objective of making them self-reliant. Such social responsibility would comprise, to initiate and support community initiatives in the field of community health and family welfare, water management, vocational training, education and literacy and encourage application of modern scientific and managerial techniques and expertise. This will be reviewed periodically in consonance with national and regional priorities. The Company would also not treat these activities as optional ones but would strive to incorporate them as integral part of its business plan. The Company would also encourage volunteering amongst its employees and help them to work in the communities along with developing social accounting systems and to carry out social audit of its operations.

❖ PUBLIC REPRESENTATION OF THE COMPANY AND THE GROUP

The Group honors the information requirements of the public and its stakeholders. In all its public appearance with respect to disclosing Company and business information to public constituencies such as the media, the financial community, employees and shareholders, the Group shall be represented only by specifically authorised directors and employees. It will be the sole responsibility of these authorised representatives to disclose information on the Company.

❖ THIRD PARTY REPRESENTATION

Parties which have business dealings with the Group but are not members of the Group such as consultants, agents, sales representatives, distributors, contractors, suppliers, etc shall not be authorised to represent the Company if their business conduct and ethics are known to be inconsistent with the Code.

❖ USE OF THE BRAND

The use of the trade name and trademark owned by the Company shall be governed by manuals, codes and agreements to be issued by the Company.

❖ GROUP POLICIES

The Company or any company under the Group may recommend to its board of directors the adoption of policies and guidelines periodically formulated by the Company.

❖ SHAREHOLDERS

The Company shall be committed to enhancing shareholder value and complying with all regulations and laws that govern shareholders' rights. The Board of Directors of the Company shall duly and fairly inform its shareholders about all relevant aspects of the Company's business and disclose such information in accordance with the respective regulations and agreements.

❖ ETHICAL CONDUCT

Every employee of the Company, which shall include Executive/Whole-time Directors and Managing/Joint Managing/Deputy Managing Directors shall deal on behalf of the Company with professionalism, honesty, integrity as well as high moral and ethical standards. Such conduct shall be fair and transparent and be perceived to be as such by third parties. Every employee shall be responsible for the implementation of and compliance with the Code in his professional environment. Failure to adhere to the Code could attract the most severe consequences including termination of employment.

❖ REGULATORY COMPLIANCE

Every employee of the Company shall, in his business conduct, comply with all applicable laws and regulations, both in letter and in spirit, in all the territories in which he operates. If the ethical and professional standards set out in the applicable laws and regulations are below that of the Code then the standards of the Code shall prevail.

❖ CONCURRENT EMPLOYMENT

An employee of the Company shall not, without the prior approval of the Managing Director of the Company, accept employment or a position of responsibility (such as a consultant or a director) with any other company, nor provide "free-lance" services to anyone. In the case of an Executive/ Whole time Director or the Managing/Joint Managing/Deputy Directors such prior approval must be obtained from the Board of Directors of the Company.

❖ CONFLICT OF INTEREST

An employee of the Company shall not engage in any business, relationship or activity which might detrimentally conflict with the interest of the Company or the Group. A conflict of interest, actual or potential, may arise where, directly or indirectly, (a) an employee of the Company engages in a business, relationship or activity with anyone who is party to a transaction with the Company, (b) an employee is in a position to derive a personal benefit or a benefit to any of his relatives by making or influencing decisions relating to any transaction, and (c) an independent judgement of the Company's or Group's best interest cannot be exercised.

The main areas of such actual or potential conflicts of interest would include the following:

- (i) Financial interest of an employee of the Company or his relatives including the holding of an investment in the subscribed share capital of any company or a share in any firm which is an actual or potential competitor, supplier, customer, distributor, joint venture or other alliance partner of the Company (The ownership of up to 1% of the subscribed share capital of a publicly held company shall not ordinarily constitute a financial interest for this purpose).
- (ii) An employee of the Company conducting business on behalf of his Company or being in a position to influence a decision with regard to his Company's business with a supplier or customer of which his relative is a principal officer or representative, resulting in a benefit to him or his relative.
- (iii) Award of benefits such as increase in salary or other remuneration, posting, promotion or recruitment of a relative of an employee of the Company where such an individual is in a position to influence the decision with regard to such benefits.
- (iv) Acceptance of gifts, donations, hospitality and/or entertainment beyond the customary level from existing or potential suppliers, customers or other third parties which have business dealings with the Company. Notwithstanding that such or other instances of conflict of interest exist owing to any historical reasons, adequate and full disclosure by the interested employees should be made to the Company's or Group's best interest cannot be exercised.

The main areas of such actual or potential conflicts of interest would include the following:

- (i) Financial interest of an employee of the Company or his relatives including the holding of an investment in the subscribed share capital of any company or a share in any firm which is an actual or potential competitor, supplier, customer, distributor, joint venture or other alliance partner of the Company (The ownership of up to 1% of the subscribed share capital of a publicly held company shall not ordinarily constitute a financial interest for this purpose).
- (ii) An employee of the Company conducting business on behalf of his Company or being in a position to influence a decision with regard to his Company's business with a supplier or customer of which his relative is a principal officer or representative, resulting in a benefit to him or his relative.
- (iii) Award of benefits such as increase in salary or other remuneration, posting, promotion or recruitment of a relative of an employee of the Company where such an individual is in a position to influence the decision with regard to such benefits.
- (iv) Acceptance of gifts, donations, hospitality and/or entertainment beyond the customary level from existing or potential suppliers, customers or other third parties which have business dealings with the Company.
- (v) Notwithstanding that such or other instances of conflict of interest exist owing to any historical reasons, adequate and full disclosure by the interested employees should be made to the Company's management. It is also incumbent upon every employee to make full disclosure of any interest which the employee or the employee's immediate family, which would include parents, spouse and children, may have in a company or firm which is a supplier, customer, distributor of or has other business dealings with the Company.

Every employee who is required to make a disclosure as mentioned above shall do so, in writing, to his immediate superior, who shall forward the information along with his comments to the person designated for this purpose by the MD who in turn will place it before the MD and/or the Board of Directors/Committee appointed by the Board and, upon a decision being taken in the matter, the employee concerned will be required to take necessary action as advised to resolve/avoid the conflict.

If an employee fails to make a disclosure as required herein and the management of its own accord becomes aware of an instance of conflict of interest that ought to have been disclosed by the employee concerned, the management would take a serious view of the matter and consider suitable disciplinary action against the employee.

❖ SECURITIES TRANSACTION AND CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

An employee of the Company and his immediate family shall not derive any benefit or assist others to derive any benefit from the access to and possession of information about the Company or the Group which is not in the public domain and thus constitutes insider information.

An employee of the Company shall not use or proliferate information which is not available to the investing public and which therefore constitutes insider information for making or giving advice on investment decisions on the securities of the Company on which such insider information has been obtained.

Such insider information might include the following:

- acquisition and divestiture of businesses or business units.
- financial information such as profits, earnings and dividends, announcement of new product introductions or developments, asset revaluations.
- investment decisions/plans restructuring plans.
- major supply and delivery agreements.

- Raising finances.

The employees of the company shall scrupulously follow the provisions of the Code of internal procedures and conduct framed by the company pursuant to Regulation 12 of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and other applicable Regulations in force from time to time.

❖ PROTECTING COMPANY ASSETS

The assets of the Company should not be misused but employed for the purpose of conducting the business for which they are duly authorised. These include tangible assets such as equipment and machinery, systems, facilities, materials, resources as well as intangible assets such as proprietary information, relationships with customers and suppliers, etc.

❖ CITIZENSHIP

An employee of the Company shall in his private life be free to pursue an active role in civic or political affairs as long as it does not adversely affect the business or interests of the Company or the Group.

❖ INTEGRITY AND DATA FURNISHED

Every employee of the Company shall ensure, at all times, the integrity of data or information furnished by him to the Company.

❖ REPORTING CONCERNS

Every employee of the Company shall promptly report to the management any actual or possible violation of the Code or an event he becomes aware of that could affect the business or reputation of the Company.
